

Notes from Mom:

I'm cutting down on the academics today, because we have a Roots&Shoots meeting to clean up the road tomorrow. We have to go to the store to get stuff for cupcakes, drinks, and we have to do laundry. We also have to clean up the cabin a bit, so our daily goals will consist mostly of preparing for that.

Morning Goals

Make Bed
Clean Area very well.
Get dressed in clothes that are appropriate for the day
Feed and Water Hamsters
Clean Hamster Cage
Feed and water rabbits
Give rabbits their medicine
Brush Teeth
Brush Hair

A one dollar increase in this week's allowance.

Notes from Mom:

I was very impressed that you got all of your goals done (with the exception of the ones I didn't do with you) in such a good amount of time. Keep up the good work! I'm also glad that you're doing your Blog every day. It helps you track what you're learning, and it helps me know how you feel about your days.

I love you!
